

English for your BUSINESS

Phoebe Hoyt

fondatrice e direttrice di Active English

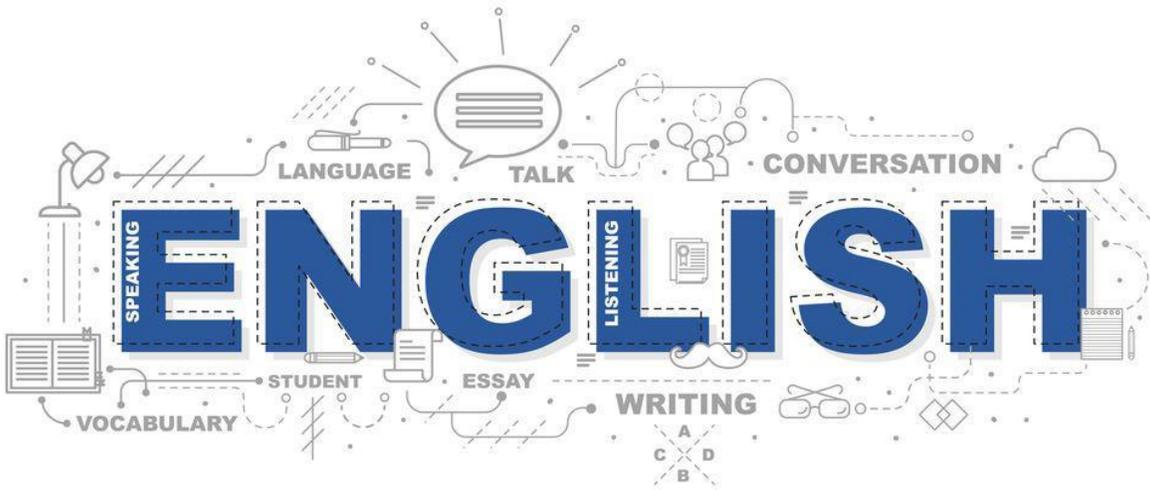

Phoebe Hoyt, founder and director of Active English, moved to Milan, Italy from Chicago after graduating with a BA in English. In Milan, she began her career as an English teacher.

She primarily taught at high profile companies to executives and employees in the financial sector. She was then hired to work on Montedison's Culture Project, organising guest lectures for various Nobel Prize winners as well as helping with internal publishing.

She later moved to London where she worked in publishing for five years. She returned to Milan in the early 1990s. On her return she worked as a teacher for companies such as Gruppo Zambon, Vimercati SpA, Strenesse, McDermott, Will & Emery / Carnelutti, Autogrill Italia and various tour operators such as Kuoni Gastaldi and Valtur.

In 2013 her language centre, based in the Milan's City Life/Arco della Pace area, was recognised as a Cambridge English Exam Preparation Centre, where she continues to teach and organise courses for companies and students from the elementary school to university graduate programs.

CAMBRIDGE ENGLISH EXAM PREPARATION CENTRE

The main benefits of a Cambridge English qualification:

A Cambridge English Qualification is often requested by potential employers and they can help to secure a place at secondary schools, colleges and universities.

Language Skills:

The qualifications are designed to test all four skills and thus develop the competencies helpful when interacting inside and outside the classroom:

- Reading
- Writing
- Listening
- Speaking

Cambridge English qualifications, based on the Common European Framework of Reference CEFR Cambridge English Scale, allow students to move from one level to another, helping to build confidence and hone skills useful in today's world.

Recognised by universities, organisations and institutions worldwide

English is tested by over 50% of potential employers in most sectors during the interview process. Cambridge English qualifications are recognised by various universities, employers and governments around the world, relying on them as a way of measuring English language proficiency. Cambridge English qualifications are widely accepted around the world as a mark of excellence making higher education and employment opportunities more readily available.
